Evictions Social Services

If you are resident of Cook County facing a housing crisis the following program may be able to assist you. Please see the information below and contact CCLAHD for more info!

Cook County has launched a new initiative, Cook County Legal Aid for Housing and Debt (CCLAHD). CCLAHD helps residents resolve eviction, foreclosure, consumer debt, and tax deed issues. The first program under the initiative, the Early Resolution Program (ERP), launched on November 23, 2020. The ERP provides free legal aid, mediation services, and connections to other resources including rental assistance for tenants and landlords dealing with evictions, property owners who are behind on their mortgage payments or property taxes, and creditors and debtors with issues related to consumer debt. Visit www.cookcountylegalaid.org or call (855) 956-5763 to find out more information and get help. The services are provided for free for residents of Cook County and are being offered to:

- tenants facing eviction,
- landlords dealing with an eviction,
- debtors being sued for unpaid bills,
- creditors wishing to collect their unpaid debts, and
- property owners who have fallen behind on property taxes or mortgage payments.

Eligibility: anyone in Cook County
